THANK YOU!!

A Huge Thank You to everyone who donated to our Coldest Night of the Year Walk. As of Tuesday we've had $2165.00 raised!! This is amazing!! Also many thanks to the people who walked on our team and to Gord, for encouraging donations from our congregation. Without all of everyone's help, our team, "United For All" would not have done so well. Thank you again!

Tax Receipts

Donation Tax Receipts for 2023 have been sent out by email, and by mail (as of Friday afternoon).

We, Joseph (Addley) and Terry (Boyd), go way back as movie fans. Pre-Covid, we attended yearly the Toronto International Film Festival, often seeing thirty films over the ten days. When we lived in London before our retirement from Fanshawe College, we were on the organizing committee for the London Canadian Film Festival. Terry was Dean of Contemporary Media, and Joseph Coordinator of the film making program. Now that the gate between Inverhuron (where we live) and Lorne Beach has been open for the winter months, driving to Kincardine is much safer. Gord proposed that we co-host a film club at the Church which we would be pleased to do if there is enough interest. It could be a fun way to spend time together over the months ahead. Please let us know by calling the Church Office at 519-396-2391 or emailing kuchurch@bmts.com if you would like to participate in a film club at the Church.

CAMP INFORMATION EVENING

At Pine River United Church March 7th from 6:30 to 8.00 p.m.

There will be people there from Silver Lake Camp at Kinloss. As well as CAMP Menesetung at Goderich. Each one will give a presentation on each camp. There will be brochures and application forms to take home. For those interested but unable to attend it will be on Zoom. Call the church at 519 395 5371 and leave a message with you name and email address or email pineriverchurch@hurontel.on.ca and they will send you the link.
