WELCOME

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF THE LAND

Jesus calls us into the world to love one another as we are loved by God.

As we came to this land,

First Nations peoples welcomed us, sustained us and taught us.

We did not hear them when they shared their vision.

In our zeal to tell them the good news of Jesus Christ,
we were closed to the value of their spirituality.

We confused Western ways and culture with the depth, breadth, length and height of the gospel of Christ.

We imposed our civilization as a condition of accepting the gospel.

As a result, the image of the Creator in us is twisted, blurred, and we are not what we are meant by God to be.

In our journey toward reconciliation, we acknowledge, this day, that we gather for worship

on the traditional territories of the Saugeen Ojibway, and the other Indigenous peoples who preceded them –

the original nations of this land – and we acknowledge, with respect, their history, their spirituality, and their culture.

CALL TO WORSHIP AND PRAYER OF APPROACH

Blessed and blessing, loving and loved,

God's people of Kincardine United Church come to this place!

We're ready!

From times of work, from times of play, from times of busy-ness, from times away,

God's people of Kincardine United Church, come!

We're set!

To speak and to receive, to sing and to pray,

God's people of Kincardine United Church, come!

We're here! We're here! We're here to worship God!

In our worship, let us spend some time with God in prayer:

God of the smooth road, God of the rough places,

God of the wilderness paths, thank you.

Thank you for calling us out when we want to wrap ourselves up and hide.

Thank you for giving us safe space when everything is just too much.

Thank you for blessing all creation with your presence, and with your love.

Open our hearts, we pray, open our minds, open our souls and, by your grace, fill them with your abundant love;

not only so that we would be changed,

not only so that we would be blessed,

but so that we can be a blessing and a people of transformation, bringing your reign into the world in Jesus' name. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

SONG OF COMMITMENT 145 MV Draw the Circle Wide

Draw the circle wide. Draw it wider still. Let this be our song, no one stands alone, standing side by side, draw the circle wide.
 Let our hearts touch far horizons, so encompass great and small;
 let our loving know no borders, faithful to God's call.
 Draw the circle wide. Draw it wider still. Let this be our song,
 no one stands alone, standing side by side, draw the circle wide.

We Remember Them...

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
We remember them.

When we are lost and sick of heart,
We remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share,
We remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live,
For they are now a part of us,
As we remember them.
